

CWOC NURSE - Wound Care

TO APPLY

About us

At Cooper University Health Care, our commitment to providing extraordinary health care begins with our team. Our extraordinary professionals are continuously discovering clinical innovations and enhanced access to the most up-to-date facilities, equipment, technologies and research protocols. We have a commitment to our employees by providing competitive rates and compensation, a comprehensive employee benefits programs, attractive working conditions, and the chance to build and explore a career opportunity by offering professional development.

Discover why Cooper University Health Care is the employer of choice in South Jersey.

Short Description

A Registered Nurse who has completed educational preparation in Wound Ostomy and Continence Nursing and demonstrates professional competence in this specialized nursing field. Nursing practice includes care of patients with selected disorders of the gastrointestinal, genitourinary, and integumentary systems. In consultation with the clinical nurse and members of the health care team impacts on nursing care and positive patient outcomes. Responsibilities include clinical practice, staff education, patient education, and research, the CWOCN serves as a significant member of the multidisciplinary health care team.

Experience Required

Experience: A minimum of 3 years acute care nursing experience, 2 years of which is within the area of specialty practice.

Demonstrates effective written and oral communication skills and interpersonal skills.

Education Requirements

Education: Graduate of an accredited Nursing School & Wound Ostomy Continence Program.
Board certified in Wound Ostomy Continence Nursing specialty.

Special Requirements

Scheduled Days / Hours: Monday - Friday, 8-hour shifts, days;

TO APPLY